MATINEE TOMORROW

LUNALILO INMATES
AT THEATER PARTY

As a parting remembrance Mrs. Weaver, who has been in charge of Lunaliilo Home, is today giving the inmates of the Home who are physically able to be out a theater party at one of the local theaters. Those who must remain at the Home are to receive a treat of candy and sweets. Mrs. Weaver will leave on the 23rd to visit her home in the States.

RECREATIONS

STRONG MAN AT BIJOU

Perri, the strong man, will make his first appearance—excepting a routine performance today—tonight at the Bijou Theater. He will balance a plover upon his chin and will also lift a bicycle and rider and balance all upon his chin. Huge wagon wheels are but feathers on this man's chin, which is as hard as steel.

The Four Alberts, Russian dancers; "Blondie" Robinson and Harry Bowen, comedians, are other Bijou features. For young people Graham's trained rats will prove an attraction. This is the only act of the kind in the United States. It always interests young people, and adults are equally pleased with the performance of the forty rodents.

Morris Golden, the Yiddish violinist, and Miss Golden, the ventriloquist, complete the Empire vaudeville bill, which will be still further lengthened with motion pictures and double orchestra.

At the Savoy Theater tonight the management will present the great "Passion Play" of Oberammergau, in three long reels. This is the religious play which is given at the Tyrolean village every ten years, depicting the last days and hours of the Christ, and shows the crucifixion. This is one of the finest films ever imported here. It is in colors.

MUTT AND JEFF AT LIBERTY

Many special features are announced by the management of the Liberty Theater for tonight's program, first among them being the sketch of Al H. Hallett and company, produced for the week-end bill. In this sketch Miss Howe wears one of the most exquisite gowns seen locally for some time. It being a velvet creation trimmed with genuine black Viennese lace, and is the admiration of the feminine members of the audience. Another item that will appeal particularly to the younger element is the first presentation of the original "Mutt & Jeff" pictures, made famous in the comic sections of the Hearst papers. On the mainland, while an Indian picture will be shown to give the youngsters an opportunity to cheer, which, in itself, has become a pleasing feature of the Liberty's matinees.

Hamlin & Mack, the dancers, and John P. Rogers, in songs, together with Al Hallett in sketches and five reels of pictures, complete a program that appears to be worth while.

The Moose baseball team, composed of members residing in town, who are to meet their brothers from Lelehu in a baseball game, on the occasion of the first basket picnic of the Moose at Pearl Harbor peninsula, Sunday, May 5th, will again practice at Kapiolani Park tomorrow morning at 9:30. It is expected that a large number of candidates for the team will be on hand at the appointed time.

Do
You
Know

That instead of paying out a whole week's salary for a suit of clothes, you can get a suit here by paying a little down, take your clothes home, and pay the balance in easy installments as you get paid.

Do YOU KNOW that if you happen to have had luck we give you lots of extra time in which to settle? That's one good reason why you should get your suit here. Another good reason is that our prices are the same as at the cash store—and in a great many instances, MUCH lower. And please remember, we don't dig into your private business, and there is no red tape like you find in most stores when you want a little credit. Your word that you will pay is good enough for us. If you want to feel dressed up, get into one of our SCHLOSSER BROS. suits and smile. Open evenings.
